

| | |
|------------------------------|--|
| Friday 8 th June | -ci- Ancient Delicious Especially Musician Optician Politician Precious Social Special Suspicious |
| Friday 15 th June | -ti- Stationary Confidential Essential Fraction Initial Nutrition Patient Torrential Emotion Creation |
| Friday 22 nd June | This week children will learn to choose between an 's' or 'c' to make the 's' sound in these words. HINT: 'C' is normally used before e, l or y. Celery City Sense Cement Medicine Social Certain Cinema Cereal Cycle |
| Friday 29 th June | 'shun' spelt sion / ssion / cian Musician Division Expression Discussion Electrician Extension Tension Confession Extension Politician |

| | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| Friday 6 th July | This week we will be looking at plurals. Remember to change the y to 'ie' before adding the s. Children will be asked to write the plural of each of these nouns. Sheep → Sheep Puppy → Puppies Knife → Knives Baby → Babies Woman → Women Wolf → Wolves Elf → Elves Story → Stories Lady → Ladies Loaf → Loaves |
| Friday 13 th July | This week we will be looking at possessive apostrophes. A possessive apostrophe goes before the 's' (The girl's costume) Plural possessive goes after the 's' if the noun already ends in an 's' ('students' → The students' desks are new.) You do not need an apostrophe for a plural if nothing belongs to them. (The girls played catch.) Boy's Boys' Boys Kitten Kitten's Kittens' Puppies Puppy's |
| Friday 20 th July. | Your last day in Year 4! I am so impressed with all of your hard work and determination with your spellings this year- well done super speller! |